

This course provides an overview of the basic safety requirements for the use of scaffolding in a construction environment. Elements of the OSHA standard (29 CFR 1926 Subpart L) will be reviewed and discussed. Safe work practices will be discussed and photos will be shown in review.